

Final Objectives 2023-24

International Emergency Medicine Committee

Chair: Elizabeth DeVos, MD, FACEP

Board Liaison: Christopher S. Kang, MD, FACEP

Staff Liaison: Mollie Pillman, MS, MBA, CAE

1. Position ACEP as a world leader in developing emergency medicine worldwide by acting as a convener on topics of global importance and providing education and resources where appropriate.
2. Act as an international convener to conduct a virtual summit for women in emergency medicine and plan for future summits on additional topics.
3. Collaborate with the International Federation of Emergency Medicine (IFEM), World Health Organization, and other international EM societies to promote resource development and sharing of best practices.
4. Expand revenue opportunities to ACEP through membership, education, accreditation, or strategic partnerships and represent international interests as new products and services are developed.
5. Support the International Emergency Medicine Section to expand recruitment and engagement of ACEP International Ambassadors.
6. Review the following policy per the Policy Sunset Review Process:
 - International Development & Promotion of Emergency Medicine

Determine by December 15 if the policy should be reaffirmed, revised, rescinded, or sunsetted. Submit any proposed revisions to the Board for approval by the end of the committee year.
