

EM Clerks & Admins

You are the first face our patients see.

Without the information you gather, physicians and other providers would not be able to treat our patients.

You link us to their past information and help us contact families. In this time of crisis, your job is even more important.

Your work is helping save lives. Thank you for being on our team.