

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY PHYSICIANS
Section of Disaster Medicine
Operational Guidelines

The Section of Disaster Medicine is chartered by the Board of Directors (Board) of the American College of Emergency Physicians (College) to provide a forum in which members of the College with special interests in disaster medicine can develop a knowledge base, share information, receive and give counsel, and serve as a resource to others interested in this area of emergency medicine.

Because sections are considered a subcategory of College membership, sections will not have separate bylaws or formal incorporation documents, and their existence and operations shall be subject to the terms and conditions stated in the Policy on Sections of Membership, as adopted and/or amended by the Board.

These operational guidelines have been drawn up to facilitate operation of the section. They shall conform to the Bylaws of the College, and the activities of the section to the decision of the Board. Projects in the areas of education, internal governance, legislation, or public relations shall be undertaken only with the advice and consent of the Board. The activities of the section shall be intimately coordinated with those of the College.

1. Name

The name of this section shall be the Section of Disaster Medicine.

2. Purpose

The purpose of the Section of Disaster Medicine is to promote disaster medicine as a subspecialty of emergency medicine, while serving as a resource to emergency physicians in the areas of education, research, the practice of disaster medicine, networking, and collaboration.

3. Objectives

In addition to the general objectives of the College as set forth in the Bylaws, the objectives of this section shall be:

- 3.1 To promote the development of the specialty of emergency medicine across the world and, particularly, the subspecialty of disaster medicine.
- 3.2 To promote collegiality and cooperation among the emergency physicians who practice disaster medicine.
- 3.3 To provide an opportunity for physicians interested in disaster medicine to meet, interact, and network.
- 3.4 To develop and present educational programs on the many facets of disaster medicine.
- 3.5 To prepare and distribute an interesting, educational, and informative newsletter for members of the section.
- 3.6 To serve as a resource to the College president, Board of Directors, College committees, and ACEP members on issues relating to disaster medicine.

4. Membership

The membership of the Section of Disaster Medicine shall consist of physicians who have a special interest or expertise in Disaster Medicine, who are interested in contributing toward the objectives of the section, and who fulfill membership requirements as defined in the ACEP Bylaws. Section members may vote on section matters and be officers of the section.

5. Nominating Committee

- 5.1 The make-up of the Nominating Committee will be determined by the section leadership. See Section 9.1, Standing and Special Committees.

6. Section Executive Committee

- 6.1 The governing body of the section shall be composed of four officers of the section: chair, chair-elect, immediate past chair, and secretary.
- 6.2 Nominees for officers shall be members of the section presented by the section's Nominating Committee to the section membership through its newsletter at least 30 days prior to the section's annual meeting, which will be held in conjunction with the College's annual Scientific Assembly. If elections are held during the annual meeting, nominations from the floor will also be accepted at the time of the section annual meeting. If elections are held via e-mail, write-in candidates will be accepted.
- 6.3 The election cycle of the section's officers will be every two years, and will coincide with the dates of Scientific Assembly.
- 6.4 Unless otherwise scheduled via e-mail or U.S. mail ballot, the election of officers and councillors shall be by a majority vote of the section members present and voting at the annual meeting. The section will elect a chair-elect and secretary every two years. If the current chair-elect cannot serve as chair, the section will also elect a chair. An alternate councillor will be elected every two years, who will become councillor for the two years following the tow year term as alternate councillor.
- 6.5 In the event of a vacant office due to mid-term loss of an executive committee member, the Chair-Elect would become Chair and the Alternate Councillor would become Councillor, while a section member may be appointed to complete the term of office of secretary by the Section Executive Committee.

7. Officers

The officers of the section shall be at a minimum the chair, the chair-elect, the immediate past-chair, secretary, councilor, and alternate councilor. The officers shall be members of the section and serve for a term of two years. Following the chair's term of two years, there will be an additional tow-year term designated as immediate past chair. Officers may not serve more than two consecutive terms.

7.1 Duties of the chair of the section:

- 7.1.1 May be appointed by the College president to serve as a voting member of a relate College committee if one exists.
- 7.1.2 May attend Board of Directors meetings at their own expense.
- 7.1.3 From time-to-time, section leaders may be asked by the President to attend the Board meetings of other entities. In this case, their expenses will be paid by the College.
- 7.1.4 Shall keep the Board of Directors and executive director informed of section activities via copies of correspondence, agenda, minutes of meetings, etc.
 - 7.1.5 Shall submit an annual report to the College president and executive director, which consists of a list of achievements and activities of the past year and goals and objectives for the coming year.
 - 7.1.6 Shall submit to the Board of Directors an informational summary of all section plans, goals, objectives, budgets, and meetings.

- 7.1.7 Shall preside at the annual meeting of the section and at any other meetings of the section. If the chair is absent, the chair-elect will assume the functions of the chair.
 - 7.1.8 Shall appoint chairperson and members to any standing and special committees of the section to carry out section activities.
 - 7.1.9 Shall have the privilege of recommending to the President the appointment of section members to committees of the College or section members representing the interests of the College with external organizations.
 - 7.1.10 Shall be an ex officio member of all standing and special committees of the section.
 - 7.1.11 Shall review all Section Grant proposals developed by their section members. Those developed section grant proposals that are determined appropriate for submission are then signed and submitted to the appropriate committee or task force assigned to manage the Section Grant Program.
- 7.2 Duties of the chair-elect:
- 7.2.1 Shall serve as an officer of the section.
 - 7.2.2 Shall assist the chair in section duties as designated by the chair.
 - 7.2.3 Shall serve as chair in the absence, resignation, or death of the chair.
- 7.3 Duties of the immediate past-chair:
- 7.3.1 Shall serve as an officer of the section.
 - 7.3.2 Shall serve as chair of the Section Nominating Committee.
 - 7.3.3 Shall assist the chair in their duties for the section as designated by the chair.
 - 7.3.4 Shall serve as webmaster of the section website, coordinating all educational materials, the mentoring program, and archives of the newsletters online.
- 7.4 Duties of the secretary:
- 7.4.1 Shall take the minutes of the annual meeting of the section and submit to the appropriate section communication vehicle.
 - 7.4.2 Shall provide the Board of Directors the names of the elected section officers.
 - 7.4.3 Shall assist the section chair in the preparation of an annual meeting and the chair of other committees of the section, as requested.
 - 7.4.4 Shall distribute to the membership via the section newsletter or other communications vehicle.
 - 7.4.4.1 The minutes of the annual meeting of the section.
 - 7.4.4.2 Such information as shall, from time to time, be of interest to members of the section.

- 7.4.5 Shall notify members regarding their appointment to any committees of the section and shall send copies of such notification to the executive director of the College.
- 7.4.6 Shall give due notice of all meetings of the section and the Section Executive Committee to the membership of the section and the Board of Directors of the College.
- 7.4.7 Shall serve as editor of the section newsletter. As editor and organizer of the newsletter, the secretary will solicit articles from section members and guests, and notify members of upcoming disaster medicine opportunities and educational forums.
- 7.4.8 Shall carry out such other duties as are assigned by the chair of the section and the Board of Directors of the College.

8. Councillor

- 8.1 The section shall elect a councillor and an alternate councillor to represent the section to the Council of the College (Council). Term of office is two years, with the alternate councillor becoming the councillor at the end of his/her two-year term. If he/she cannot serve as councillor, the section shall elect a member to fill both positions and resume normal progression from alternate councillor to councillor.
- 8.2 Duties of the councilor and alternate councilor(s):
 - 8.2.1 Shall represent the section at the Council meeting.
 - 8.2.2 Shall have duties, obligations, and privileges as designated by the Bylaws and procedures adopted by the Council.
 - 8.2.3 Shall keep the section informed of all Council activities before, during, and between sessions and report to the section, in its newsletter and/or other communication vehicles, all important matters considered.
 - 8.2.4 Shall bring any resolutions that are developed to the Council from the section.

9. Standing and Special Committees

- 9.1 The chair shall appoint a Nominating Committee as a standing committee and designate the immediate past-chair to serve as chair. In addition to the immediate past-chair, the Nominating Committee shall consist of three members appointed for a term of two years.
- 9.2 The section chair shall appoint special committees when indicated.

10. Meetings

The annual meeting of the section will be held during the annual Scientific Assembly of the College and will consist of two portions:

- 10.1 A professional program open to all members of the College, professionals, paraprofessionals, and guests invited by the section.

- 10.2 A business meeting open to all members of the College with voting limited to section members.
- 10.3 At their own expense, sections may hold special meetings at other ACEP functions.
- 10.4 Sections may seek outside funding support for their meeting as long as it is not in conflict with the College's fund raising activities associated with Scientific Assembly.
- 10.5 At their own expense, the section may hold a meeting at other venues where disaster medicine section members are already in attendance, for example at an annual disaster medicine meeting.

11. Dues

The dues for the section are established by the Board of Directors of the College.

12. Additional Funding for Activities

- 12.1 To increase its funds, the section may apply for: 1) An allocation of 15% of its total dues collected during the previous year; or 2) A one-time per project voluntary special assessment.
- 12.2 The section may raise funds from outside entities such as corporations. All such fundraising must be approved in advance by the College and meet the criteria established by the College.
- 12.3 The section may apply for a Section Grant. Projects can be funded which benefit individual sections as well as advance emergency medicine and educate the public.

13. Parliamentary Authority

The parliamentary authority for all proceedings of the section shall be the parliamentary authority approved for use for proceedings of the College. However, should conflicts or inconsistencies arise between the parliamentary authority and this instrument, this instrument shall govern.

14. Voting

- 14.1 Voting on any issue, except amendments to these Operational Guidelines, may be accomplished either during the annual meeting, or via a mail ballot. Mail ballots can be electronic and/or U. S. mail. The Chair shall determine which method is appropriate for each item coming before the section.
- 14.2 For e-mail and U.S. mail ballots, the voting membership will be defined as the section membership on the date the ballot is sent. The majority of dues paying section members (based on the number of dues paying members on the day the ballot is sent) must approve any item in order for the item to be approved.

For e-mail and U.S. mail ballots, write-in candidates will be accepted.

14.2.1 Voting by E-mail

Snap Survey software will be used to e-mail the ballots and to tally the results.

Two e-mail notices will be sent, seven days apart, to all section members regarding the upcoming ballot.

Seven days after the second notification email, the ballot will be e-mailed once to all section members with a due date for return by e-mail in 10 days.

14.2.2 Voting by U.S. Mail

Mail ballots shall be distributed to members through the section newsletter or the section e-list a minimum of thirty (30) days prior to the voting deadline. The ballot will also be sent once via U.S. mail to all section members with a due date for return in 10 days. Executed mail ballots will be forwarded to by e-mail or U.S. mail to the section staff liaison.

14.2.3 Electronic Voting for Officers

Elections conducted electronically will be held 20 days prior to the annual meeting. Call for nominations will be submitted via the section e-list 45 days prior to the annual meeting. The slate of candidates will be drawn up by the nominating committee and will include names of those that self nominate. Candidates at their discretion may submit a brief bio including a statement of qualifications to serve as section officer. This material will be submitted to the section via e-list prior to the election. A simple majority of those casting votes will determine the successful candidate. In the event of a lack of opposition the candidate will be considered elected by acclamation.

Snap Survey software will be used to e-mail the ballots and to tally the results.

15. Amendments

Any member of the section membership may originate a proposed change in these section operational guidelines. Proposed amendments to the operational guidelines must be submitted in writing to the chair in care of the section's staff liaison at the College at least ninety (90) days prior to the scheduled annual meeting.

Proposed amendments will be published in the section newsletter or e-mailed via the section e-list immediately preceding the annual meeting of the section, and will be placed on the agenda of the section annual meeting. Any proposed amendment must be approved by two-thirds of the members present and voting during the annual meeting or the section will follow the procedures for electronic voting.

The Section Executive Committee and the Board of Directors of the College will review adopted amendments. Amendments approved by the Board of Directors of the College will be published in the section newsletter preceding the next annual meeting of the section.
